Army Corps of Engineers seeks ideas for 9-11 Pentagon attack victims' memorial; competition open to public, details available

Walla Walla, Wash., -- Do you have an idea for a great memorial for the victims of the terrorist attack at the Pentagon? If so, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers invites you to enter your idea in the competition for an artistic concept for the outdoor memorial at the Pentagon. The Congressionally authorized Pentagon Memorial will be built near the impact site. The competition is open to everyone. Information on the Pentagon Memorial competition is available on line at <http://memorialcompetition.pentagon.mil>. Or call toll-free (in the U.S.) 1-866-782-4383.
